ARMIES OF GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS PENETRATE SILICIA AND EAST PRUSSIA IN FORWARD MOVEMENT.

NEW ATTACK IN WEST

German Reinforcements For Last Stand Battle To Reach Straights of Dover—Engagement At Ypres.

London, Nov. 9.—At three points of the front of the Russian army in East Prussia, the Russian forces of the Grand Duke Nicholas have been making a forward movement. The Russian army is now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen, and the Russian forces are now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen. The Russian army is now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen, and the Russian forces are now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen. The Russian army is now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen, and the Russian forces are now in the possession of the town of Gumbinnen.

It is the present time Germany has been fighting, generally speaking, in the territory of the Russian army. ## GREATEST GAME IS TRUE RIGHT LIVING

URGES DAILY PRAYER

Masonic Men Were President in a Body at Service.—Speaker Says

Conscience is Our Coach.

Emitting with emphasis that the greatest game today is the game of true, right living, Rev. S. T. Kidder in his morning sermon at the Congregational church Sunday, took up the subject of conscience, bodily exercise and their relationship. He took as his text, the 24th chapter and 16th verse of the Book of Acts, "Herein I also exercise myself." "Herein," he said, "I mean the game of true, right living."

Today, began the speaker, "athletics is largely at the front. This is true despite the criticism that is bound to prevail. Athletics have the index of college property and interest, and as long as the sporting mania can be caught and tamed, then the athletic tendency is a very happy one."

"Every organ of the body can be held up through physical exercise. Life is made more full and rich, and the mind is made more alert and clear. In the last analysis, bodily exercise promotes as being a good thing. Because it is all done in a conscientious way. But someone will ask, 'What is a conscience?' It is a distinct faculty, or one among other faculties. Does it begin to work at birth or at the period of adolescence? There are those that see out and gaze upon the beautiful rivers, lumber, buildings, or anything that is visible. Then there is another eye, an eye inside the human form, that acts as a gauge to register character. We all have such eyes. We can shut or open the inward eye just the same as we can the visible one. That depends upon us, and so we do. It is our monitor, or the eye that warns us, and I believe it will last until the soul lasts."

"A man who goes wrong," went on the speaker, "is a man who goes wrong. A conscience is a halfspring, if not a mainspring in a man's life. A conscience makes a man a man, but first it must be trained, regarded as a kind of a conscience was inherited. Direct your attention to your conscience, until you have formed a worthy one. Goodness is a habit, and it makes good conscience. Choose your habits quickly. Time is short and rapid choice is necessary. A professor once said that between the age of thirty years and the age of forty, he formed, but I believe that habits can be formed at any age. Train your conscience to habitual accuracy. Make your conscience an ally and not an enemy to yourself. If we possess a good conscience? Daily prayer, is the first important factor. I believe. Searching of God's word is another. Habit of kind and good cheer is another. All this leads up to the greatest game today, brought about as the result of hard and consistent training. Our coach is conscience, and it is the greatest of all. Let it be our life's major and highest graduation. But before all this is done, before a conscience can be formed and established, there is a question to be solved, by the individual. That is, put your question to God. Do not leave it to yourself. Many people dislike to be criticized. They say they are their own boss, and will dictate as they please. That is harmful, perhaps not to themselves, but to the community. Self-criticism is a heroic virtue. It is better to sacrifice a little than to hurt your household or companions. Trust yourself that you will follow these instructions to the best of your ability, and you will succeed."

delegation of Masons, including the Chicago degree team, which rendered degree work in this city on Saturday night, attended the service. The delegation numbered about fifty.

BAD CHECKS PASSED FOR SMALL AMOUNTS

George Lempe and E. W. Lowell Lose $22 to Forger Friday Afternoon.—Refused at Two.

Patience to investigate before cashing questionable checks cost two Janesville merchants $10.50 apiece Friday afternoon when a (formerly) looking stranger paid for small purchases at stores with checks on the First National Bank, Janesville, cashed in favor of D. B. Davis, on C. B. Richards, a Rock county farmer. The checks were cashed, and the clerks being under the impression that he had been a customer of the store, the man had no difficulty in obtaining the cash balance. The Lowell hardware store the second valuable paper was turned into money. An attempt was made to pass the third check at the Carle grocery store on Saturday morning, but one of the clerks thought before he acted and consequently saved his employer from loss.

At the Safady store on Academy street, Davis offered another check, but Joe Safady refused to honor the paper until he had called up an employee of the bank. While the telephone was in use, Davis made a hurried exit from the store.

The police did not learn of the forging until late Saturday afternoon, as it was not until then that the two checks were offered at the bank, where they were refused. The former had twenty hours' time to make good his escape, it is not probable that he will be apprehended. The handwriting on the checks is anything but striking, the signature being very poorly made out, and the endorsement is quite different from the name on the check. On one of the checks the endorsement was written in pencil.

Police reports from all parts of the state show that an unusual number of the check experts are working on extreme care should be exercised in accepting them. "Watch your checks," warned Chief Champion this morning. "Experience is a good teacher, but costly."

List of Names In the Home Helpers Bureau

Below will be found the list of names compiled by the Home Helpers' Bureau, a co-operative organization, whose sole purpose is to co-operate in bringing together those persons having time to work and those who want workers to help them. In many cases the telephone number is given; in all the address where they can be reached. There are many lines of work listed and while all may not receive a call immediately for their services, if the list is cut out by the busy housewife, she may find it most useful later when help is needed.

The idea is worthy of consideration and the names which appear below are all those of persons who can be recommended by the ladies who received the various applications and listed them. The Gazette is publishing the list a second time with corrections for the benefit of those who will use the services of the persons thus listed. The following is the list:

PESSIMISTIC VIEW OF TARIFF FOR YEAR

Winfield Jones Says Bill Has Been Detriment to Prosperity of These United States.

(By Winfield Jones.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—The utter failure of the Underwood Tariff Law to maintain the unparalleled prosperity that existed under protection, its disappointment as a producer of revenue sufficient to support the government, its dismal collapse as an expander of our exports to capture foreign markets, and the havoc and depression generally it has brought to the American farmer, wage earner and manufacturer, and to American business generally is shown in a review of the first twelve months operation of that law from October, 1913, to September, 1914, inclusive. This review has been compiled from the official monthly bulletins of the United States Department of Commerce.

Twelve months of Democratic tariff spell increased imports of merchandise, increased exports of gold and increased expenditures of government, while decreases are shown in customs receipts, exports of merchandise, our balance of trade, and our total trade or international commerce of gold, and the treasury surplus.

Free imports have increased $169,582,729 as a result of placing wool, cattle, meats, eggs, potatoes, corn, oats and various farm products on the free list.

Dutiable imports under protection amounted to $828,860,788 while under Democratic free-trade they amounted to $721,337,123 or a falling off of $107,523,665. This decrease is chiefly in manufactured goods and indicates a diminished consumption in this country owing to the closing down of American mills and factories throwing people out of employment and bringing about a general curtailment of their purchasing power.

The total import trade shows an increase of $25,530,070.

Our export trade amounted to $2,516,615,660 under protection, while under Democratic free-trade we sent abroad $2,218,498,254, or a falling off of $298,117,406 for the first year under the free-trade tariff of 1913.

The balance of trade, excess of exports over imports, under protection amounted to $704,032,261. Under free-trade it amounted to $243,275,785, a disastrous falling off of $460,756,476 in one year of free-trade.

Our total or international trade (imports and exports) amounted to $4,328,170,058 under protection. Under free-trade it amounted to $4,092,620,723, or a falling off of $235,549,335.

Foreigners sent us $236,858,587 of gold under protection, while under free-trade they sent us $37,457,690 or $18,500,897, less than under protection. We sent to foreigners $77,775,547 of gold under protection, while under free-trade we sent to them $176,376,139 or an increase of $97,600,592. The excess of our exports of gold over imports of the same precious metal amounted to $3,817,260 under protection and $17,918,419 under free-trade or an increase of $14,101,159.

As a revenue producer the Democratic law is a dismal failure. For the first twelve months of its existence customs receipts amounted to $266,119,218, or a falling off of $5,742,255, from the amount received for a similar period of protection, which was $271,861,473.

Falling receipts alarmed the free-traders so much that they have resorted to additional taxation of the people by passing the so-called "war tax bill," which they estimate will pay off the shortage in customs receipts of $2,000,000 and the income tax failure of $35,000,000. The European war, which began about August or 1914, has been blamed by the Democrats for this shortage in revenue, yet customs receipts for the first ten months from October, 1913, to July, 1914, inclusive, of the Underwood tariff showed a falling off of $30,660,070, clearly proving that the European war had nothing to do with this deficit.

Courageous Young Man Prevents Bad Smash-up in Runaway on Main Street Saturday Afternoon.

Three young ladies were saved from injury and possibly death on Sunday when Robert Boyd, a local telephone company employee, stopped the horse and carriage in which they were riding when the harness broke on Court street hill and the animal began a mad dash down the hill and turned onto Main street.

Boyd was standing on the Main street corner when he saw the thills raise up over the horse and come down on its back. The horse sprang forward and dragged the swaying buggy to Main street where he turned south. A portion of the harness remained fast to the rig and scared at the mixed condition of affairs and the screams of the three occupants the animal was traveling at a fast pace when Boyd caught the bridle.

He was dragged for a considerable distance but turned the animal into the park curbing where the wheels caught and stopped further progress. Mr. Boyd received the profuse thanks of the three young ladies.

THE HOME OF THE WILD ELEPHANT

Vast Herds of Huge Pachyderms Still Roam the Plains and Forests.

Every hunter of big game longs for the time when he can follow the trail of the elephant through the boundless jungles of the Dark Continent. Despite the fact that hunters have for centuries slaughtered these colossal brutes solely for the purpose of securing ivory, the wild elephant still seems to be as numerous as ever in his African haunts.

The elephant is the most intelligent as well as the largest of all the land mammals. In India he has been tamed and trained to perform tasks which require a higher quality of brain power than is usually found among the lower animals.

Strange as it may seem, no African elephants have ever been taught to follow man's bidding, although his kind are found in much larger numbers here than in India. A few trained Indian elephants have been imported into Africa and their obedience to the commands of their keepers has astounded and impressed the African natives much more than the marvels of railroad operations.

Col. Roosevelt's party not only hunted the elephant to secure perfect specimens for the National Museum at Washington, but he has given us in African Game Trails, a vast amount of valuable data, accompanied by the most marvelous photographs of elephants ever taken by a hunting party. This book tells also of the habits of all the other game animals of Africa, both large and small. It is a natural history put in popular and readable form—free from uninteresting technical descriptions. For a short time The Gazette will distribute this unique volume to its readers who present six coupons. Read the announcement in another column and learn how you may get it on practically a complimentary basis.

Amusements

AT THE APOLLO.

"The Lost Paradise." Paramount Pictures open tonight and tomorrow at the Apollo with the celebrated play, "The Lost Paradise," in which H. B. Warner—another of the leading players of the day—enters the motion picture field, to record his art on the screen.

"The Lost Paradise" is the story of a gigantic struggle between master forces of modern industry. Interwoven with this thrilling picture of industrial conflict is a tender romance, between the superintendent of the factory and the daughter of his capitalist employer.

The production is, sumptuously mounted, and a startling note of realism is added to the story by a series of scenes taken by special permission in one of the largest iron and steel foundries in the country.

In one scene in particular, where

Scene from "The Lost Paradise" at the Apollo tonight and Tuesday.

Warner, as the superintendent, orders the big strike on, and gives the signal to the workmen at the huge iron wheels, the tremendous machinery of the foundry suddenly stops, and thousands of workmen pour from the factory. It is estimated that the cost of stopping the activities of this gigantic plant for the moment required to photograph the scene, amounted to $9,000. The accurate factory atmosphere and the thousands of real laborers utilized in the scene lend an effect to the production entirely extraordinary to motion pictures.

"An Odyssey of the North." An event of unusual interest is the presentation of Jack London's "An Odyssey of the North," with Hobart Bosworth as "Naass," the avenger. It has been filmed by Bosworth, Inc., and will be seen at the Apollo, Wednesday, for matinee and evening.

AT MYERS THEATRE. "Bringing up Father," a new cartoon play from the pictures conceived by George McManus and produced by that veteran producer, Mr. Gus Hill, comes to the Myers Theatre Thursday, November 12. It must be sure of success, otherwise Gus Hill would not have selected it. It is the first real Vandeville review yet made up of the place of the stereotyped Musical Comedy. The entire cast made up specialty people. A large chorus of pretty girls weld the entertainment together. It's a sure winner.

"The House of Bondage." Faithfully reproduced from the book by Reginald Wright Kauffman, a story of the White Slave traffic. Realism and great action make it and it drives home its moral with telling effect. The picture is in six parts and tells the story of the underground in a manner that is endorsed by social reform workers everywhere.

AT ROCKFORD. "The Beauty." Raymond Hitchcock's big show, comes to the Grand Opera House at Rockford tomorrow night, following a season of success on Broadway. It is said to be true to its title in so far as the stunning show girls—classy costumes, captivating chorus ladies and dainty nimble-footed dancers can combine grace with the wit and the wit and wit and wit.

The long, lean, lemon-haired Hitchcock himself is sure to provide a wealth of his imitable brand of clean, crisp, comedy, which alone always makes a Hitchcock offering a rare delight to all classes of playgoers.

Billie Burke in "Jerry." Grand Billie Burke will hit the Grand Rockford next Thursday appearing in "Jerry," the American comedy by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, in which she scored one of her biggest successes last season, New York, at the end of last season. This is the play in which Miss Burke wears the pink pajamas which New York theatre-goers admired so much. The piece tells an amusing story of how a breezy young Chicago girl upsets the routine of a staid and proper household in a quiet Philadelphia suburb and eventually elopes with the man to whom her aunt has been engaged for twenty years. The role of the girl ought to fit Miss Burke precisely and critics who have seen the performance say it does—that it is the best opportunity she has ever had of displaying her charming personality.

Agricultural and Garden Dept. ALLEN B. WEST, Director.

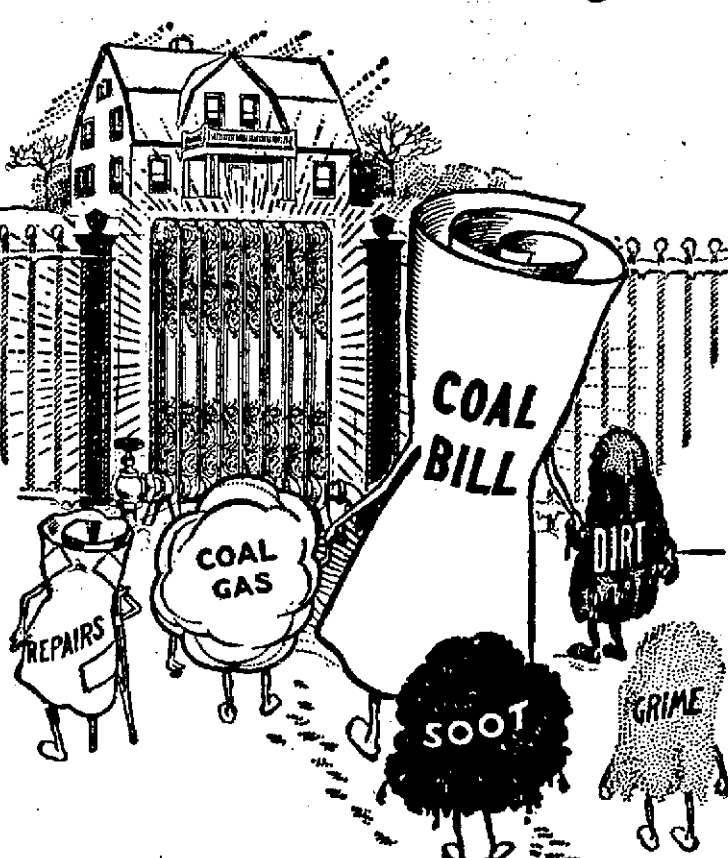

In this department Professor West will answer all questions on agricultural and garden matters each Saturday. As your interest in the department develops, a more frequent insertion of the queries and answers will be made. Address all communications signed with your name, to the Agricultural Department, Gazette. Your name will be withheld, if desired. If personal answer is also desired, enclose self-addressed stamped envelope.

Question—Will you please tell me if you think that wood or coal ashes are good to put on a garden and for potatoes and sweet corn. Could the ashes be put on this fall, winter, and spring?

Answer—Coal ashes are of no use in the soil that is, in ordinary soils, and in sandy soil, they would be a detriment as they would make it hard. Wood ashes on the contrary are good for the garden and would be a benefit to the soil for raising corn and potatoes, containing as they do potash phosphoric acid and lime. They may be applied at any time during the fall, winter and spring before putting in the garden. Unless copious rain or snow comes, these should be kept under cover to prevent leaching, as in that case most of the potash is removed. Coal ashes may be used on drive ways and to advantage also in the burn yard.

Question—What elements necessary for plant growth are likely to be lacking in soils and what commercial fertilizers are used to supply the lack?

Ans.—There are 10 food elements, carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, potassium, phosphorus, magnesium, calcium, iron and sulfur. All these exist in different proportions in different soils, and all but three of them in such abundance that all plant needs are supplied without any special fertilizers. The three elements likely to be lacking are nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium, or perhaps to state it more exactly, they are likely to be available to the plant, for in order to be of any use to the farmer, the food elements contained in the soil must exist in such a form that the plant can make use of them. The great source of nitrogen is the air. But the plants are unable to take it from the air above the ground. As nitrogen is the most expensive of the commercial fertilizers, costing about 18 cents per pound, the most economical way to get this is by getting it from the air, and in such form that the crops may make use of it. Certain plants known as legumes, peas, beans, clover, and alfalfa have in little nodules on their roots certain bacteria which have the power of taking nitrogen from the air and transforming it into organic (usable) nitrogen. It is now well known that the growth of leguminous crops adds nitrogen to the soil, hence a good way to supply the lack of nitrogen is pendent upon these fertilizers as barn yard manure is the great source of the supply of potash and on most farms is easily obtainable. One of the reasons why dairy farming is so profitable is that plant food taken from the soil is returned to it in the manure. ONE RESULT.

One of the direct results of the election last week will be the conclusion that the voters of Wisconsin want a revision of the laws so as to eliminate much of the receipts of the state and to put the business-like basis and putting government where it belongs, in the hands of the people, not in commissions. Directly a demand will be made for a reduction of taxes. The divorcing of the university from politics, and as one of the men behind the Home Rule and Taxpayers' League told a university professor who inquired "making the instructors and professors at the university earn at least twenty per cent of their salary." By their vote the franchised voters of the state elected Emanuel Philipp governor. Mr. Philipp conducted a campaign strictly along the lines of retrenchment, of reduction of state taxes and elimination as far as possible of useless commissions. He did not, as Karel, did likewise, although not as radically as Mr. Philipp. On the other hand, Governor McGovern, who sought the United States senatorship, made his campaign on his record as governor, the past four years of which culminated in the present political upheaval. That Philipp was elected and that McGovern was defeated, is evidence of the desires of the people.

When the situation is carefully considered this can be the only true solution of the apparent defeat of McGovern and the election of his democratic opponent. While the candidacy of Blaine, a rise to cover the desertions of the anti-Karel democrats, and an opportunity for Senator La Follette to further vent his spite and personal grievance against McGovern, played some part in the final result, undoubtedly the question of management, or rather mismanagement of state affairs, credited to the progressive republicans, defeated McGovern's ambitions and elected Husting.

Blaine himself, the tool of the ambitious and unscrupulous politicians, who lent himself to the game, did not receive enough votes to even be a figure in future political considerations. The Davies-Aylward crowd of democrats beat their party candidate, Karel, covered their own tracks under the guise of the independence and La Follette discovered that his power as a state leader, a dictator of politics and a molder of public opinion, was fast becoming a minus quantity.

Philipp won because of his platform and his public expressions in support of them. McGovern lost because the voters tired of the way the state has been managed for a decade. That is the result in a nutshell. The legislature has its work cut out for them. They will find a man in the governor's office who will aid them in their work of re-organizing state affairs, but will be unbending in his attitude toward extravagance and the adoption of new-fangled experimental ideas suggested and subscribed to by the university coterie who have devoted more time to politics than to their classroom for years.

FOR POOR BELGIUM.
For centuries, since the advent of the Roman Legions into western Europe the little strip of the seacoast which is the home of the Belgium people, has been the battle-grounds of the world. Today it is once more devastated, its cities in ruins, its fields swept clear, its factories destroyed and its millions of population homeless wanderers on the face of the earth, able only to subsist through the kindness of its neighbors whose sources are at best taxed to supply their own needs. Women, children, the aged and infirm are in dire want and famine stalks through what was but a few weeks ago a fertile, prosperous country. An appeal has gone out to the world for aid. To the citizens of the United States in particular, and unless food is shipped to them, money raised to pay for provisions, countless thousands will die of actual starvation. The Gazette is raising a fund to aid these unfortunate people. Tonight at the Lyric theatre the management has agreed to donate the entire receipts to help swell this fund. Their generous people have subscribed who have various lists which can be found at the banks, Baker's drug store and the Gazette office, and citizens of Janesville and Rock county are urged to aid in this work. It is not anti-German, it is not pro-German—it is the appeal of the suffering, of the needy, of the starving, of those that have for aid and succor. It is to be hoped that the funds raised will be enough so that they can be used to advantage for the necessity of immediate aid is imperative, and while one ship-load of provisions has already left New York for Europe, others must follow in quick succession if innocent lives are to be saved.

TARIFF TINKERING.
While the republican gain in the new congress does not give them control of the entire situation, they can, with the aid of the progressives elected and the Tammany democratic members from New York state, who have been ignored by the president, make things so interesting for the democratic majority that the present method of tariff-tinkering and general disturbances of the financial marts of this country. The Underwood tariff has already worked its havoc that will take years to undo. The mills of the country, in many localities are idle, the big business has stopped construction and the winter sees thousands of idle men and women seeking food and shelter. There is a lack of confidence throughout the country. There is a thought for retrenchment just at this time when, with all the mills of Europe shut down, with the trade marts of South America, begging for the products of our industrial centers, at a time when Europe seeks American-made goods to meet the unusual demands caused by the war, the factories are closed for the most part or running on half time while thousands and millions of American dollars lie idle fearing what may happen through the ill-advised democratic management of national affairs and politics. The effect of these policies is shown right here at home. It is far-reaching. The eastern industrial centers have been first affected but gradually it is spreading westward and it is to be hoped the results of last Tuesday's vote will give capital confidence to bring out of its treasure chambers the money needed to start up industries again, for it was but a preliminary skirmish to the presidential election two years from now when the republican party will again gain control of national affairs.

The Home Helpers' Bureau is a free, cooperative association of workers for those wishing to employ them. It is not a charitable institution, but just what the name signifies—a home helpers' bureau. In another column of this issue will be found a list of those whose names have been entered on the lists and they are recommended by the ladies of the committee who have charge of the affair for the consideration of those who desire their services.

Football enthusiasts are considering a plan for a final football struggle—an after-season game, between the best eastern team and the best western eleven—the receipts for which are to be donated to the Belgium fund. This is putting football to a good advantage and the result would be a good thing for the sport itself and settle the much-disputed question which of the two western produced the best football material.

One of the results that is most gratifying is the statement that goes out from the progressive headquarters in New York state that the stormy Petrel of politics, Theodore Roosevelt, will not be a candidate for the republic or progressive presidential nomination two years from now. With Roosevelt and La Follette eliminated things may now proceed along safe and sane lines.

War news is as scarce in these days as it was when the struggle first began and the German hosts, without warning, suddenly appeared on Belgium territory on their way to Paris. They have not reached Paris yet, but the struggle has been a titanic one. President indications are that it is going to be a long, drawn-out affair and the final results have not yet been written.

After eliminating Huerta, what do Carranza and Villa start doing but seek to eliminate each other. This "watchful waiting" policy has not proven to be the best way to settle the Mexican trouble after all.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Swan of Elkhorn motored to Whitewater on Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. George M. Ferris.

Miss Martha Dockery came from the teachers' convention in Milwaukee for a week end visit with her brother and sister, leaving Sunday for her school work at Kaukauna.

Alfred L. Gorey came from the Milwaukee convention Saturday morning to spend a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gouffrey. He returned to his school at Stevens Point Sunday night.

Miss Grace Gouffrey came from the university to make the family circle complete.

Miss Hazel Palmer has been visiting Mrs. Julius Trutt and Mrs. Lee Englebrecht since last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Johnson and infant son spent several days last week with Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. George Fletcher, of Milwaukee, and attended the sessions of the teachers' convention.

Miss Harriet Warner, Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mrs. J. C. Cox and Mrs. L. C. Baker returned Friday from Racine, where they attended the Federation of Women's Clubs sessions.

GIVE THREE DRUNKS COUNTY JAIL TERMS

Edward Taylor of Evansville Released With Prosecuting Witnesses Failing to Make Complaint.

Three drunks were arraigned in the municipal court before Judge H. L. Maxfield this morning, two being in for a Saturday night orgie and the third for the effects of a Sunday carousal.

Eurline Hanneh, an Edgerton young man, came to Janesville Saturday night for the purpose of visiting a lady friend here. Hanneh never "called," for lodge friends took the young man's affairs into their hands, and Sunday Hanneh was not recovered from the night before and repeated helpings from a bottle put him in a pitiful condition. When before court he pleaded guilty, and was given five days or five dollars.

August Morrell, a tailor, pleaded guilty and was given fifteen days, in default of a fifteen dollar fine.

John Splinter drew twenty days or fifteen dollars fine, as he, as Splinter has been in the hands of the police several times for "tanking up" on Saturday nights.

Officer Cal Broughton of Evansville brought a young man, by name of Ed Taylor to the municipal court, this morning to answer charges that he had been pressed by the engineer and fireman on train 505 on the Chicago & Northwestern railway. As the train crew failed to appear the man was released.

It is alleged that Taylor attempted to "beat" his way from Janesville to Evansville Saturday night. The train crew ordered him off from the "blind package" at the Janesville station but the man climbed between the second cars and dared the engine crew to put him off. At the Evansville yards, it is said, a man attacked the fireman, a stone, smashing the cab window, which caused a fistic engagement that would rival a ring exhibition. As there was no one to make a complaint against the man he was dismissed.

The case against Taylor was charged with wife abandonment, was dismissed in the municipal court this morning by Judge Maxfield. The complainant, Mrs. Wilbur, told the court she intended to sue for a divorce.

SECOND FIRE WRECKS OLD HOLLERAN HOUSE

Unoccupied Structure on Fifth Street Gutted by Flames of Suspicious Origin Last Night.

For the second time within a period of seven days the department was called to extinguish a fire in an old and unoccupied Mike Holleran homestead at the corner of Glenn and Fifth streets. A week ago this morning at 12:30 a. m. a case was made and the fire broke out from the "blind package" and last night at 10:15 the latest fire did considerable damage to the structure.

When the department arrived the two-story wing of the house was a mass of flames. Fanned by a light breeze the fire spread to a one story addition on the west.

The interior is in ruins, as is the roof of the addition. After work of fifteen minutes the fire was under control and the fire was sounded out half an hour following the sending of the alarm.

Inquiry among nearby residents on the scene brought to light the fact that the unoccupied house had not been a haven for tramps. The consensus of opinion is that very few, if any, ever occupied the place.

Several were of the opinion that both this and the fire of last Monday morning were incendiary attempts to wipe out the structure.

When you think of insurance think of C. P. Beers.

WISCONSIN OPPOSES BIG EAST-WEST GAME

Van Hise Sees No Reason for Abandoning University's Policy on Intercollegiate Contests.

Madison, Wis., November 9.—The University of Wisconsin will take a negative stand in regard to the proposed East-West football game to raise funds for the Belgian refugees, as outlined by President Edmund James of the University of Illinois. The consummation of the plan needs the approval of the three contenders for the western championship, Chicago, Illinois and Wisconsin, and it is said the first two are favorably inclined. The game would be played between Yale or Harvard (which ever will combat) and the western conference champions.

"I have always opposed intercollegiate football contests," said President Van Hise when interviewed, "and I see no reason why I should be in favor of such a match as this time."

Director of Athletics George W. Ehler said he did not believe the faculty would favor the idea.

ROAD DITCH CAUSES ARREST OF FARMER

C. D. McCarthy Makes Complaint Against Geo. Hubbell for Obstructing Highway.

Action was brought against George Hubbell, a farmer residing in the town of Porter, in the municipal court this morning on the complaint of C. D. McCarthy, member of the county board, charging Hubbell with obstructing the highway by digging a drainage ditch across the road. A plea of not guilty was made by Attorney McGowan who represented Hubbell, and the case was adjourned for two weeks.

The controversy was caused by Hubbell digging a ditch across the highway known as the "river road," which crosses his farm. It is claimed by the defendant that the charges are not warranted, as the ditch constructed was to turn the surface water caused by recent rains into its natural course at the bottom of the hill. The water had washed a gully at the foot of the hill, which was dangerous to traffic, and Mr. Hubbell filled the hole at his own expense and turned the course of the water to prevent further damage.

The civil action suit of Geo. A. Mills against E. M. Carpenter was adjourned one week. The attorneys in the action are E. H. Peterson and C. Christenson of Beloit.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

A HUNDRED AND ONE PER CENT EFFICIENCY.

"W" HAT though we split a few grains of corn, or drops of oil from the cruse, these be the price of peace." From a Persian Poet.

Is there not such a thing as being too efficient? Is it not possible to be so anxious to get the full value out of time, money, material, opportunities, etc., that we do not get the full value out of life?

I know a woman who is what I call a hundred and one per cent efficient in her use of time. She realizes its value and she cannot bear to waste a moment, and so she is constantly contriving to squeeze some little task or pleasure into some interval that to the ordinary mind appears too small to contain it. Sometimes she succeeds and sometimes she doesn't. And still again she succeeds and has to pay a big price for her success.

The other day a group of us were going on a pleasure trip. We gathered at a friend's home. There was one of the hundred and one per cent efficient for the group to assemble. Another woman telephoned that she had been unavoidably delayed and was just starting. The ultra efficient took out her watch and noted that it would take our friend twenty minutes to reach us. Her restless mind at once saw a use for that time. "I think I'll run up to the public library for that book," she said. "I'll just have time."

She went. She came. She took her twenty-five minutes instead of twenty. The other woman was picked up by a friend's automobile and reached us in five minutes instead of twenty, so six people had to wait twenty minutes in order that one person might save a point beyond which the effort to utilize every minute of time would be a waste.

Of course the ultra efficient lady could not foresee that train of events, but that is not the only time her friends have had to pay the price of her ultra efficiency. It is hers to pay a large price. Of course, when you are limited to certain resources it is a good thing, instead of economizing simply by doing without, to make these resources count. But there comes a point beyond which the effort to utilize every minute of time would be a waste, and that is the time when it is well to stop and see if you can't economize by simplifying and going without.

Training and exercise make a man strong, but there is a point beyond which they make him stale and weak. There is a point beyond which the good, by excess, becomes the bad, and that is the point of the twentieth century, efficiency, is no exception to the rule.

Every Day Talks To Every Day People

BY FRANCES JOYCE KENNEDY.

Two boys who were born and raised in the same town, met one day in their home town where they both had their respective homes.

The first of the two was a boy of twenty, a fine, well-developed young man, who had been a student in one of the best schools in the city. He had a good education, and was a good worker. He had a good home, and a good family. He was a good son, and a good brother. He was a good friend, and a good neighbor. He was a good citizen, and a good man.

The second man was a boy of twenty, a fine, well-developed young man, who had been a student in one of the best schools in the city. He had a good education, and was a good worker. He had a good home, and a good family. He was a good son, and a good brother. He was a good friend, and a good neighbor. He was a good citizen, and a good man.

The third man was a boy of twenty, a fine, well-developed young man, who had been a student in one of the best schools in the city. He had a good education, and was a good worker. He had a good home, and a good family. He was a good son, and a good brother. He was a good friend, and a good neighbor. He was a good citizen, and a good man.

cottage cheese. To one pint of the whey drained from the cheese, use two tablespoons of sugar and as much fruit as desired with any flavoring extract you fancy. A dash of nutmeg or spice improves it.

THE TABLE.
Breakfast—Most appetizing and nutritious dish for the men folks who have only a light lunch at noon. To one pint of sour cream or buttermilk add one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-half teaspoon salt. Mix thoroughly, add to this enough corn flour (not corn meal, if the flour can be obtained) to make a nice smooth batter. Make the size of ordinary waffle cakes. Bake on egg is desired, although it is not necessary. Bake on hot griddle that has been properly greased. Make the size of ordinary waffle cakes. The poorest digestion can take care of them. This amount will be sufficient for a family of five.

Delicious! Cut real steak half inch thick cut into pieces just large enough to serve, season with salt and pepper, dip in beaten egg, roll in crumbs. Have spider piping hot with about half pint of oil in bottom. Fry veal quickly on both sides until light brown, then pour milk over veal till it comes almost to top of veal. Cover tightly and place in slow oven baked about one hour. Fifteen minutes remove lid so veal will crisp. Prepared in this way veal is as tender and delicious as spring chicken and may be cut with a fork. One pound of veal will serve four persons bountifully.

Lobster Cakes (made from canned lobsters)—Mince meat of lobsters fine, season with salt and pepper, mix with one tablespoon flour, add lobster and a little finely chopped parsley; add a little stock, and let it come to a boil. Boil for five minutes and stir into the yolks of two eggs. Spread this mixture in a shallow pan. When cold, cut into omelet shape, dip carefully in beaten eggs, about in cracker crumbs and fry to a rich brown in hot fat.

Pumpkin for Pies and Canning—Clean and put in oven, as to bake potatoes. When ready, peel as baked potato. Cut in halves, scoop out seeds and stringy part, then cut rest in pieces and put through ricer or colander. Is ready for pies or to make very stiff batter. Have sugar boiling, drop dumplings into liquor with a teaspoon, first dipping spoon in hot liquor. Cover and cook eight minutes. Turn out in dish and cover. Let as little air touch them as possible, and they will be little puff balls.

Dumplings—One cup flour, one egg, pinch of salt, one teaspoon baking powder, enough sweet milk to make very stiff batter. Have sugar boiling, drop dumplings into liquor with a teaspoon, first dipping spoon in hot liquor. Cover and cook eight minutes. Turn out in dish and cover. Let as little air touch them as possible, and they will be little puff balls.

RESULTS ARE SEEN IN ALLEY CLEANING

Good Improvement Has Been Made in Downtown District.—Room for

Hitting on all six cylinders for the past month has enabled Health Officer S. B. Buckmaster to receive some results from property owners in the cleaning of the public alleys. It has taken lots of gas, and heavy traveling, and there seems to be considerable room left for others to swing into line and place their alley frontage in a clean and sanitary condition.

Speaking of the trouble met by all health officers who have held the position in Jamesville, Dr. Buckmaster felt that there should be some system of garbage collection and disposal. He gave a number of storekeepers and property owners credit for their good conditions prevalent in the rear of their establishments, but said that a far greater number were permitting accumulations of debris and unsanitary refuse which should not be tolerated. With the department handicapped with a small expense allowance, the work can not be carried on to any extent. Dr. Buckmaster said the city should provide some means to keep these thoroughfares clean.

Monroe has a municipal incinerator, and the refuse is collected three times each week and burned at the city plant. Property owners and storekeepers contribute to the support of the system. The city has been no hitch in keeping the Cheese City alleys clean.

Cold weather will shortly be upon us, he said, and now is the time that everybody should clean up their premises for the winter. There is lots of room for improvement both down town and at private residences. Many people wait to be told by the health department, but to make a better place all around everybody must pitch in and do his own share of the labor, he said.

NURSES IN THE WAR.

What Women Are Doing.

The women of the warring nations are nursing, cheering and comforting the wounded or dying. The women of Europe not only wrap bandages and scrape lint, but they tend the farms, dig coal, carry burdens and do the work of the men now under arms. Every male fighter, however brave and heroic, was born of woman; the high courage and hardihood that are a nation's strength are inherited from the mother.

Young mothers who preserve the charms of face and figure in spite of an increasing family and the care of growing children are always to be envied. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives the strength and health upon which happy motherhood depends. It practically does away with the pains of maternity. It enables the mother to nourish the infant life depending on her, and enjoy the hourly happiness of watching the development of a perfectly healthy child.

Thousands of women who are now blessed with robust health cannot understand why thousands of other women come to worry and suffer from ailments peculiar to women when they can obtain for a trifling sum Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which will surely and quickly banish all pain, distress and misery and restore the womanly functions to perfect health.

CAINVILLE CENTER

Cainville Center, Nov. 7.—Lester Townsend entertained his Sunday school class at his home Friday night.

Rev. D. O. Grant and meet will be held Friday evening, Nov. 13, in the A. C. church.

Nellie Gardner spent Thursday night with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. W. Footville.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cory were guests at George Townsend's Monday night at Adelbert and Leonard Townsend of Janesville, visited at their grandfather's, Bell Townsend's, a few days this week.

Lizzie Bennett and Glance Townsend were Evansville shoppers Thursday.

Shredding corn is progressing rapidly in this neighborhood.

Frank Bennett was a Janesville business visitor Wednesday.

Dave Andrews' team caused much excitement on the street Wednesday evening when he was returning home with a load of hay.

In some way the hay slid off the wagon, burying Mr. Andrews with it. The horses ran on, and when near the school house, were tangled up in the wire fence.

Miss Goep, the Cainville teacher, was the first to get to them and had them untrapped when the driver made his appearance. Besides the rack being broken, no other damage was done.

RESINOL MAKES ECZEMA VANISH

Stops Itching and Burning Instantly.

There is immediate relief for skin itching, burning and disfigured by eczema, ringworm, or other tormenting skin trouble, in a warm bath with Resinol Soap and a simple application of Resinol Ointment. The soothing, healing Resinol balsams sink right into the skin, stop itching instantly, and soon clear away all trace of eruption, even in severe and stubborn cases where other treatments have had no effect. After that, the regular use of Resinol Soap is usually enough to keep the skin clear and healthy.

Resinol Ointment (50c and $1.00) and Resinol Soap (25c), are also speedily effective for pimples, blackheads, dandruff, sores and many forms of piles. Prescribed by doctors for the past nineteen years, and sold by all druggists.

For trial free, write to Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Buy in the original blue package and avoid the inferior substitutes which a few unscrupulous dealers try to sell to make a few cents more profit at your expense.

DENY SWEDEN SENDS GERMANY SUPPLIES

Claims Made by England That Scandinavian Countries are Exporting Food Supplies are Denied.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Stockholm, Nov. 9.—Public suspicion in England that the Scandinavian countries are supplying Germany on a large scale with such commodities as wool, petrol and grain, has arisen and energetic protests in the Swedish press. The suspicion is wholly unfounded. Since the beginning of the war and the declaration of Swedish neutrality, the export of these commodities has been prohibited by the Swedish government. The order has been rigidly enforced.

Regarding the increase in Swedish imports of corn, which the London Times quotes as one basis of the suspicion that Sweden is sending corn to Germany, it is explained here that this increased importation is due simply to the fact that Sweden's harvest of common fodder this year has been very poor. The corn is to a great extent, given to pigs. Thus the Swedish papers point out that the Swedish and Danish export of pork and ham to England, depends largely upon the supply of corn, which is a reason England should look upon this import with sympathy.

When the war broke out Sweden was short 60 per cent of her usual petroleum supply, and Denmark in a still worse plight, which accounts for the present importations. Having the opportunity to import Sweden is determined to cover her own requirements, for there is constant fear that traffic may be stopped at any time.

England's prohibition of the export of wool and some specified woolen manufactures will cause some inconvenience to Swedish factories. The need of the British article is not well understood here, since a long time ago, had stopped the exportation of any woolen articles to Germany.

A result of this restriction, it is said, will be that Swedish manufacturers will buy their wool directly from the Argentine and in the future pass by the British merchants. Preparations are already being made towards establishing such direct importations.

Norway's Claims.
London, November 7.—G. Argaard, secretary of the Norwegian chamber of Commerce in London, declares that charges against Norway in connection with alleged exports to Germany, are "absolutely incorrect."

He presents the following figures: "The total imports into Norway of grain of all kinds in the first ten months of 1913 were 340,032 tons. The total imports this year, including everything contracted for delivery up to the end of this month, are 306,711 tons."

"The importation of coal into Norway during the first nine months of 1913 was 1,033,150 tons. This year there is a falling off to 1,634,118 tons."

"The importation of coke during the first nine months of 1913 was 205,025 tons. This year there is a falling off to 170,438 tons. No coke has been re-exported from Norway except a few hundred tons to the Norwegian fishing steamers at Iceland and the Faroe Islands."

"The total import of petrol this year up to the present moment is about 2,300 tons, including a cargo of about 150 tons just arrived."

"We are all the more concerned that the British public should have correct information on this point, because, owing to the present critical conditions, it is important that Norway should lay in as large stocks as possible of grain, coal and oil, and it is intended to increase the imports as far as financial facilities will allow."

CLERK FINDS NEW WAY TO FIGURE PARCEL POST RATES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Fayetteville, Ark., Nov. 7.—Calculus, adding machine or hours of mental toil are not necessary for the solution of parcel post rates, said George Rogers, a local postal clerk today, who ought to know. Rogers has devised a table by which he claims rates may be rapidly computed with the aid of the parcel post "zone" may. Rogers has just completed the table, though the rates have been in effect two years. For the first and second zones, for instance, under Rogers' plan, the rate is equal to the number of pounds of the parcel post plus cents. The rate for the first zone equals number of pounds plus 4 cents. Third zone, two times number pounds plus 4 cents.

Fourth zone, four times number pounds plus 3 cents.

Fifth zone, six times number pounds plus 3 cents.

Sixth zone, eight times number pounds plus 1 cent.

Seventh zone, ten times number pounds plus 1 cent.

Eighth zone, 12 cents per pound.

SOCIALIST VICTORY IN SWEDISH CHAMBER WILL CAUSE GREAT CONFUSION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Stockholm, Nov. 9.—The result of the general election, through which the socialist party became the largest one in the second chamber, has been a general confusion regarding which party is to form the new cabinet when the war is over.

The socialists declare themselves not willing to take the responsibility, but would like the liberal party, which was beaten in the election, to form the new government, well knowing that this would mean socialistic policy by means of a liberal cabinet, as the liberals are not being able to carry their opinion in a division, would be quite dependent on the socialists or the conservatives. The socialists on the other hand, not wishing the fact that they could not vote more than the conservatives, will not be able, without the support of the liberals, to accomplish anything in parliament. The liberal party being now the smallest in the second chamber, has solemnly declared that in no circumstances, either in alliance with the conservatives or with the socialists, will it be willing to form the new cabinet. All parties prefer waiting in opposition in the hope of growing stronger.

MAMMA, DADDY AND THE CHILDREN CAN ALL TAKE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

HARMLESS "FRUIT LAXATIVE" CLEANSSES STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

A delicious cure for constipation, biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness—take "California Syrup of Figs." For the cause of all this distress lies in a torpid liver and sluggish bowels.

A tablespoonful tonight means all constipation, poison, waste matter, fermenting food and sour bile gently moved out of your system by morning without griping. Please don't

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food

When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness.

Most people naturally object to the drastic cathartic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect and that will quickly relieve constipation is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. It does not gripe or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly and is therefore the most satisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, Inc., Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

BIG SCORES FEATURE GRIDIRON STRUGGLES

RESULTS OF SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL GAMES BRING NO SURPRISES.

HARVARD SHOWS CLASS

Michigan Shows Developed Strength In Intersectional Game.—Notre Dame Loses to Strong Army Eleven.

(By Striker)

Football ran true to form on Saturday, no surprising victories being registered, but instead the eleven picked to win delivered with decisive scores that were unlooked for. The biggest surprise of the day was the swamping of Princeton by the Harvard eleven by a 20 to 0 count. This is the third consecutive victory that the Crimson have scored over the Tigers and their fourth win since 1883, Harvard winning the annual struggle way back in 1887. Michigan carried the western banner of football to a stirring victory over Pennsylvania, while Notre Dame was crushed by the strong Army team in the intersectional games.

The four leading conference teams were idle, depriving the west of sectional interest in the gridiron combats and putting the east in the limelight. Harvard at last showed her hand. While the Cambridge team was doped to win, no one anticipated they would give the Tiger's tail such an awful twist as 20 to 0. Coach Haughton's football training showed itself for the first time this season, and with the western backdrop in the game the result was that Princeton was outclassed in every department of the game. Harvard's line was like steel, and only twice during the entire game was Princeton able to make their downs, and one of the gains made on a pass, the only one the Tigers completed out of seven attempts.

Mahan a Booter. Mahan, the brilliant back of Harvard, filled Brickley's shoes in the kicking department and booted two goals across, showing that Harvard will not be weak when field kicks are needed. The victor's scoring was the result of the steady line plunging and executing of fake forward pass formations that the Tigers could not fathom. This play was taken from the Canadian Rugby coaches who were added to the Harvard staff recently. The attack and defense of the Crimson appears to be a polished condition well fitted to stand the hard game next Saturday, and then the final historic combat with Yale a week later.

Wins With Pass. Yost took chances in the Penn game and the westerners conquered in a one-sided combat by a 34 to 3 score. Brilliant open field plays, formations built for the pass, resulted in four of the five touchdowns scored. Spawm outplayed his Penn rival and at every exchange of boots Michigan gained. Michigan's line and backfield proved the best around gainer in the struggle. This Michigan back is slated for a certain position on the All-Western and is a logical candidate for the All-American team.

Cornell combats with Michigan on Saturday the 14th at Ann Arbor, and the Ithaca eleven has an excellent season's record and a strong machine built for the victory. The battle will be one for revenge and the westerners have one of the fastest backfields in the country to meet Yost's proteges.

Yale is Doubtful. While Yale barely escaped defeat at the hands of Brown, their real strength can not be ascertained. The Blue attack was poor during the open quarter and their offense was greatly hampered and hindered by repeated fumbling. The first score came to Yale through a fumble on a ground pass in the second quarter. Brown tied by forward passing, giving Eli a bad fright. The Blue backs rushed the ball down the field in the last quarter by straight rushing and broke the tie. Yale, since the Notre Dame game, has not uncovered their rugby passes to any degree, and it is probable that Eli is attempting to perfect them for the Harvard game. The Blue will have the hardest game so far this season next Saturday, when they meet Princeton. Harvard comes a week later. With these two crucial games coming together and with Harvard meeting Brown, the Crimson has a clear advantage in conditioning for the final game.

Notre Dame Bumped. Notre Dame got their second bad bump of the year when the Army crushed the "Catholics" 20 to 7, thereby raising the question for the westerners gave them last year. The Cadets have improved to a great degree, while Notre Dame is slipping fast, when competing with stronger eleven. O'Flaherty, the ex-Purdue star halfback, was in the Cadets during the latter part of the game. The former All-Western player will be saved for the Army-Navy game.

In the third intersectional game, Purdue, as expected, trounced Kentucky 40 to 0. Purdue played straight football and ripped the southern line for gain after gain down the field for seven scores.

Carlisle braced and tied Holy Cross to a pointless score. The Indiana play Notre Dame at the Indiana school gridiron next Saturday. Notre Dame is picked to win because of the "Indians" poor showing this year in past games.

Cornell defeated Franklin and Marshall in a hard fought game 26 to 9.

Western Games. It was resting day in the west. Four conference eleven, Ohio, Indiana, Northwestern and Iowa, struggled to cutters, and Iowa and Ohio State remained on top. Northwestern was swamped by Iowa 27 to 0, and Indiana was licked by Ohio 13 to 3. For once the Purple team showed fighting spirit, but Iowa's scoring and defensive tactics were too much for the "weaklings" of the conference.

Nebraska scored at will against Morningside, winning 24 to 7, the Purple's score being made against a second string aggregation put in in the last quarter. The Cornhuskers are rated as one of the best eleven in the west, which they justly deserve. Nebraska plays Iowa on the 21st and Iowa will have to improve greatly to conquer the Cornhuskers.

Mount Union foil a prey to the Michigan Argies' prowess 21 to 14 in an evenly matched melee. Basket ball tactics helped the Mount Union eleven.

Lawrence won the Wisconsin smaller college title, defeating Beloit 36 to 0.

Carroll walloped Lake Forest badly, 23 to 0. Dalton, Janesville halfback on the Waukesha school, scored a touchdown in the game. Carroll is attempting to schedule a game with Beloit, claiming to be able to defeat Evans' squad.

Marquette won a game. Milwaukee experienced a surprise when the Marquette team defeated Creighton 8 to 0.

PLAN GAME TO AID BELGIAN REFUGEES

Champions of East and West May Contest.—Funds to be Given to Red Cross Work.

Conference football officials are considering a plan of playing a post-season football game, between the eastern and western intercollegiate champions, the proceeds of which will be used as a fund to aid the Belgian refugees. The idea of the championship benefit game was originated by President James of the University of Illinois, and is meeting with general favor among the conference coaches.

The proposed date would be on November 28, at the world's largest football stadium, which would be the Yale bowl or Harvard's new structure, and the receipts would be administered by the Red Cross committee.

The presidents of the universities in the "big nine" have been presented with the question and replies to the proposition are expected to be made this week. From a sporting standpoint such an intersectional struggle would decisively settle for the first time, the national title in football. It is estimated that at least three hundred thousand dollars would be raised if such a game is scheduled, as the Yale bowl has a seating capacity of sixty thousand people and the Harvard stadium over forty thousand.

Many of the conference coaches have expressed themselves as strongly in favor of such a contest, as it would give them an opportunity of proving their claims that western

LAWRENCE VETERANS TROUNCE BELOITERS; FINAL SCORE 36 TO 0

Evans' Green Team No Match for Northern Machine at Line City Title Contest Saturday.

Playing with a rush at the opening whistle, and taking every chance ever afterwards for sixty minutes, the Lawrence college football eleven, coached by Mark Catlin and headed by Captain Walter Tippet, humbled the Beloit eleven on the latter's field Saturday afternoon, by the score of 36 to 0. It is needless to say that Lawrence have a great team for Beloit's band were not as green as at first predicted. The gold warriors fought, but could not stand the constant pounding attack that was facing them every five seconds.

It took Lawrence but two minutes to score, following the opening whistle. After this count came, Tippet and Abrahamson were the shining lights, and were the two men that Beloit most feared. Elliott was another star, during the time he was in the game. But when picking out stars, every man on the Lawrence team could be placed in that banner column, even to the second string men. Catlin, as a coach, has won himself a name that rings through every college and university in the country. He has turned out teams that have equalled "big nine" eleven. The team he placed on the field at Beloit Saturday, was one of his best works. When, instead of running to their positions on the various sides which were used, merely took short hops, all at the same time, and as the result of this, Beloit proved to be a poorly beaten team on the other side. A short account of the game by quarters is as follows:

First Quarter. Beloit kicked off to Abrahamson, who returned the ball to the field. A series of rushes, in which Tippet brought the ball within five yards from Beloit's goal line. Abe was sent over the remaining distance for a touchdown, after two minutes of play. Abe kicked goal. Score: Lawrence, 7; Beloit, 0. All of the pep was taken out of Beloit.

Abraham, or Abe, as he is called, then kicked to Edler, who made a pretty run back for thirty yards, dodging several blue tacklers. This was Edler's most brilliant performance of the day. At other times he would loaf and failed to show the class that was expected of him. Beloit failed to gain, and punted. Lawrence was penalized twice for offside play. Abe and Tippet started in again, the former tearing off 25 yards over left end, followed by the other ripping off ten more over the other extremity. Elliott then came in for a good gain of five yards through the line. Elliott was then sent over for the remaining distance of six yards for Lawrence's second touchdown. Abe missed goal. Score: Lawrence, 13; Beloit, 0.

Abe kicked to Ward. A pass to Edler failed. Beloit punted, and on the first play, Tippet tore off 8 yards on an end rush. Elliott came in for six more over the same place. Abe added three on an end run. The first quarter ended. Score: Lawrence, 19; Beloit, 0.

Second Quarter. It was still Lawrence's ball. Abe and Tippet made first down with good gains. Lawrence's line penalized five yards for off-side play. Elliott ran five yards in an open field. Abe tried to drop-kick from the 52 yard mark, but the ball went a little wide. It was a beautiful boot. Beloit took the ball on their own 20-yard line. Ward and Edler smashed Lawrence's line for four and six yards respectively. Beloit punted to Beach, the agile Lawrence quarter, who returned twelve yards. Tippet smashed left tackle over Wilkinson for 12 more. Abe was downed for a loss. It was the Methodist's ball on Beloit's ten-yard line. A split formation that puzzled Beloit, netted five yards for Abe. Lawrence were penalized five yards. Abe was laid out. When play was resumed, Beach, quarter for Lawrence, hit center for the third time, down of the game. Abe missed goal. Score: Lawrence, 19; Beloit, 0.

Abe kicked to Beloit. A pass to Edler failed. Another incomplete pass was intercepted by Beach. Wilkinson hit right tackle for ten yards, on a tackle around play. Davis was at left half in Elliott's place, and he made a good gain over center. Lawrence were penalized five yards for holding. Abe tried a second drop-kick from the twenty yard line, but failed. Beloit took a punt. Ward and Tippet counted eleven yards and first down. Lawrence were penalized five yards. Edler and Ward failed to gain. The first half ended. Score: Lawrence, 19; Beloit, 0.

Third Quarter. Abe kicked to Ward of Beloit. Beloit failed to gain and punted Elliott and Wilkinson made five and two yards respectively. Edler recovered a fumble, and it was Beloit's ball. "Eckie" Johnson, the Gold quarter, made ten yards over right end. A pass gave Beloit twenty yards. Another pass netted Beloit ten more. Ward counted five yards over center. A triple pass failed, after a penalty on Lawrence was held good. Once a peculiar formation, Edler was thrown for a fifteen yard loss. Beloit's line was weak. Beloit were held for downs and Lawrence began a spurt. They rushed the ball fifty yards to the three yard mark, from where Capt. Tippet scored. Abe kicked goal. Score: Lawrence 26, Beloit 0.

Tippet now was at his best. Time and again he would tear off end rushes that startled and amazed Beloit. His work was indeed spectacular and consistent throughout. Abe kicked to Edler, who was downed for little gain. On the second play, Beloit punted and it was Lawrence's ball in mid-field. Abe kicked off, and Edler at once punted. Lawrence carried the ball to the thirty yard line, from where Abe lifted a perfect drop kick that counted. Score: Lawrence 29, Beloit 0. An exchange of punts, after the kickoff, closed the quarter.

Fourth Quarter. Edler punted to Beach on the first play. Abe was sent over center for thirty yards. It was easy for him then to annex the remaining ten yards to his credit for another touchdown. He kicked the goal. The quarter ended here, with the final score Lawrence 36; Beloit 0.

The lineups and score was as follows: Beloit: Schutz, I. e.; Steussey, I. t.; Cowan, I. g.; Tracy (Capt.), c.; Babbours, r. e.; Jacobsen, r. t.; Eggebrecht, r. e.; Reiss, q.; Ward, I. h.; Edler, r. h.; Garrity, f.

Lawrence: Thompson, I. e.; Wilkin-son, I. t.; Hue, I. g.; Wright, c.; Wal-lace, r. e.; Schneider, r. t.; Sampson, r. e.; Beach, q.; Elliott, I. h.; Tippet

(Capt.), r. h.; Abrahamson, f. Substitutions: Henry for Garrity, Johnson for Reiss, Klesath for John-son, Sprague for Jacobson, Henry for Eggebrecht, Vance for Henry, Davis for Elliott, Berry for Schneider, Vin-cent for Sampson, E. Beach for Abra-hamson, Wittuhur for A. Beach, Bruce for Tippet.

Touchdowns: Abrahamson, 3; El-liott, A. Beach, Tippet. Goals from Touchdowns: Abraham-son, 3. Drop Kick: Abrahamson. Referee: Kittelman. Umpire: Hoffman. Head Linesman: Jennings.

PACIFIC SLOPE AUTO RACE AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Nov. 9.—More than 20 racing automobiles will be sent away tonight in the annual Los An-geles-to-Phoenix road race over a dif-ficult route. After leaving the per-fect highways of the southern Cal-ifornia citrus belt beyond San Bern-ardino, the cars must force their way across the sands of the Mojave de-sert to the Colorado river. Long stretches of Arizona desert then must be conquered before Phoenix is reach-ed. Several thousand dollars in prizes are offered.
